

Oak Class Spring Term 1

Honesty - How Are There Two Sides To Every Story?

Writing

How do different perspectives shape opinion?

An exploration of viewpoints through diaries and letters.

How do we structure a balanced argument?

Raising the calibre of our language through formal debate

Art

How does an artist interpret the natural world with honesty?

Observational drawing and biomimicry

Music

How does an artist interpret the natural world with honesty?

Studying the use of music to tell nature's stories

Maths

How can we use our knowledge to explore all possibilities in mathematics?

Fractions, Decimals, Percentages, Ratio, Statistics, Exploring longitude and latitude

Reading

How does a narrative challenge different perspectives?

Skellig by David Almond

Computing

How can I use technology to share information and statistics to answer questions?

Data and information: flat-file databases

PE

Gymnastics
OAA

Science

Is evolution the only perspective?

Classification, evolution and inheritance

Geography

Are humans creating a sustainable future for our planet?

Mapping skills, habitats and our impact on the natural world.

PSHE

How do I understand other people's viewpoints?

Relationships

R.E

Is religion the only perspective?

Creation stories from different religions

The Incredible Journey of Charles Darwin

"We are not here concerned with hopes or fears, only with truth as far as our reason permits us to discover it"