

P.E

Who recognized the power of athletics and paved the way for what we practise in sport today?

Alternative sports; Tri Golf
Net and Wall games/Tennis

Computing

How can animation help tell the story of power in ancient Greece?

Using a range of techniques to plan and create stop-frame animations.

Science

Forces and Magnets

How does magnetic power behave with materials, and can it be harnessed?

Exploring forces, magnetism and how magnets behave.

Class 3 Spring 2

Value : Justice

Enquiry Question: Who holds the power?

Maths - Fractions and Decimals

Fractions beyond the whole - mixed number and improper

Add and Subtract fractions

Decimals - Tenths and Hundredths - links with fractions

Adding Tenths and Hundredths

Decimals to 2DP

Comparing and Ordering Decimals

English

What are the consequences of power?

Is power always a force for good?

Narrative - Exploring Character Motive in Greek Myths - Pandora's Box, Prometheus, Phaeton and Icarus

Instructions - Linked to D&T

D.T

How can we create a shell structure to protect a museum artefact?

Exploring and designing packaging.

Focus - Shell Structures

Music

How can the power of music inspire justice and our rights?

Exploring a range of music linked to the Greeks whilst listening, appraising and performing it

R.E

Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'?

Understand how Christians show their beliefs about Jesus in worship in different ways

Guided Reading

How does the power of a story transcend time? Are the themes of power and balance still as relevant to us now as they were in Ancient Greece?

Exploring a range of different Greek myths and the structures of non-fiction texts such as instructions.

History

Who held the power and how was it kept in Ancient Greece?

How does the power of a story transcend time? Are the themes of power and balance still as relevant to us now as they were in Ancient Greece?

A study of ancient Greek civilisation and its influence on the modern western world.

PSHE

How can power be used as a force for good or evil?

Relationships