

Class 4 Spring Term 1

Honesty - How Are There Two Sides To Every Story?

Writing

How do different perspectives shape opinion?

An exploration of viewpoints through diaries and letters.

How do we structure a balanced argument?

Raising the calibre of our language through formal debate

Art

How does an artist interpret the natural world with honesty?

Observational drawing and biomimicry

Music

How does music improve our world?

Charanga unit 3, exploring key and time signatures

Maths

How can we use our knowledge to explore all possibilities in mathematics?

Fractions, Decimals, Percentages, Ratio and Algebra

Reading

How does a narrative challenge different perspectives?

Skellig by David Almond

Jemmy Button I Uman and V Vidali

RE

Is religion the only perspective?

Ub2.2 Creation and Science: conflicting or complimentary?

Science

Is evolution the only perspective?

Classification, evolution and inheritance

Geography

How do we balance the human impact on a unique place with sustaining it for the future?

A study of locational knowledge to navigate the world

Mapping the Beagle's voyage the Galapagos Islands, the impact of tourism and trade and conservation for the future

PSHE

How do I understand other people's viewpoints?

Celebrating diversity

PE

Gymnastics

Outdoor Adventurous Activities

The Incredible Journey of Charles Darwin

"We are not here concerned with hopes or fears, only with truth as far as our reason permits us to discover it"